No suburban area experienced greater growth than Sumter County, FL which attracts buyers from the Orlando, Lakeland-Winterhaven, Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater and Ocala metro areas. According to Census data, 44.9% of the 9,718 homes there that are occupied by 55-74 year-olds were built between 1995 to 2000. Additionally, Sumter topped the list for recent home buyers ages 55-74, with 61.6% of all active adults in the county buying a new home during that same five-year span.

D. DID YOU KNOW?

If you or someone you know has trouble managing their money, the Social Security Administration can appoint a relative or friend to be the "representative payee" and receive payments for you (or a loved one). Having a power of attorney alone is not sufficient to cash the checks. A representative payee must be able to manage the money for your needs. A power of attorney and
